Antic ARCADE

APX lives again... via Antic!

The Atari Program Exchange was one of the most advanced software distribution concepts ever created for personal computers (IBM came out with something very similar for the PC in 1984). APX published the best software submitted by Atari users from all over the world. These programs were outstanding — but considered too specialized in appeal for Atari's mass merchandising channels.

APX software was packaged simply but tastefully and sold mostly through well-written catalogs. With the reorganization of the Atari company and the shutdown of APX operations, Antic arranged directly with the authors to re-release many of the very best APX programs — games, real world applications, powerful utilities, demonstrations and tutorials.

APX Classics Line from ANTIC brings back these fine programs that had been unavailable to Atari users for many months. But you'll also notice that some of these programs have never been published anywhere before...

We are including this brand new software with our top-of-the-line APX Classics because we want you to know they are as good as the best of APX. (Also a lot are the latest works of former APX star programmers.)

Antic will continue to release additional outstanding programs in the APX Classics line. If you have written a professional-quality program for Atari computers, submit it to APX Classics from ANTIC, 524 Second Street, San Francisco, CA 94107.

We pay competitive royalties and are the largest single information source for Atari users.

Each program disk is self-documented.

Antic is in no manner associated with the Atari Program Exchange.

Atari is a trademark of Atari Corp. Antic is an independent periodical not affiliated in any way with Atari Corp.

GALAHAD AND THE HOLY GRAIL

By Douglas Crockford

Written in machine language

The search for the Holy Grail goes on in this challenging and exciting graphic adventure by one of Lucasfilm's top game programmers. In GALAHAD AND THE HOLY GRAIL, you will encounter monsters galore, evil knights, and even an occasional dragon. Fear not! Enchanted walls lead you to the sanctuary of secret portals — the lucky finds of swords and keys will assist you in your quest. This was one of APX's all-time best-sellers!

BURGERS!

by Douglas Crockford

Written in machine language

BURGERS! would terrify even easygoing Wimpy away from his favorite food! As you float above earth, burgers drift gently upward and if they touch you, you get bigger and bigger till you EXPLODE! Designed for young children, the score is totaled as "burgers served" and the music is light and spritely, (despite the grisly premise).

SPACE WAR

by Jay Jaeger

Written in machine language

This two-player galactic shoot-out is a hot new adaptation of the classic mainframe computer game developed at M.I.T. in the early sixties. Your goal: to destroy your enemy's space ship before it gains control of our solar system. The sun is both an ally and potential pitfall — you use its gravitational waves to avoid torpedoes and propel your ship to strategic positions. But if you get too close, you're a frozen sitting duck for enemy forces.

DIGGERBONK

by Steve Robinson

Written in machine language

Winding your way through a vertical scrolling maze (amassing points) you "BONK" all the Pulsing Greenies and Purple Gurples who get in your way. Unfortunately, they're out to demolish you too, so you might have to resort to the Panic Button in case of dire emergency. Death is inevitable, so try to bonk as many P.G.'s as possible before you go. Great fun for kids of ALL ages.

SNARK HUNT

by Jeff Johannigman

Written in BASIC and assembly language

Snarks (like sharks) are difficult beasts to detect — hidden by mysterious depths. In SNARK HUNT, vorpal beams are your only tool to track these elusive creatures. The beams will react in different ways to the presence of snarks, and you will find your logic taxed to the limit trying to decipher where the snarks are. Up to 8 players can attempt this mission; higher levels create a special challenge.

DANDY

by John Palevich

Written in machine language

DANDY is a 26 level dungeon adventure where cooperation is essential to success. You and up to 3 friends must get past the monsters. Strength is lost each time a monster rams you, and a constant supply of food is necessary to rebuild your wasted body. Collect smart bombs along the way (they come in handy) and don't forget to pick up keys to unlock your way out of each maze. DANDY is well-suited for group game play — families will be totally captivated, if not completely addicted.

SARATOGA

by Paul Wehner

Written in machine language

Great wars make great games, and if you enjoyed EASTERN FRONT you'll love SARATOGA — the war simulation of the American Revolution. The time is 1777 and your American forces must destroy the redcoats before the year ends, yet retain control of Albany, Philadelphia, West Point and Fort Ticonderoga. Eight scenarios and game-save feature make this simulation a lasting hit!

BUMPOMOV'S DOGS

by Gray Chang

Written in assembly language

You can't keep a good dog down, and Gray Chang, author of DOG DAZE DELUXE, now presents you with this totally new two-player competition. The race is on to see how many biscuits your two dogs can scoop up. The first dog that picks up 100 biscuits and carries them back to his doghouse wins. Beware the floating bone; if one dog shoots this at his opponent, the stricken canine gets rudely "bumped" through the maze and loses his biscuits. You'll find the splitting/recombining screen unique — making the action very exciting.

REQUIRES: One Joystick per person

DOG DAZE DELUXE

by Gray Chang

Written in machine language

A dog's favorite fantasy is at the core of DOG DAZE DELUXE — to become top dog by staking your claim to all the new fire hydrants popping up on the screen! It's not easy — careless drivers and competing underdogs are your constant hazards — but no one said a dog's life ever was! Excellent 3-D effects and the one-or-two player options make this game fun for everyone.

Written in BASIC and assembly language

The best character set editor we've seen. INSTEDIT can help you make maximum use of the advanced graphics capabilities of your Atari computer. You use a joystick to edit a character in an eight-by-eight matrix. INSTEDIT simultaneously displays the modified character in all six graphics modes. You can even create objects to use with player/missile graphics routines. You can store a character set for further work and even write it to a disk file in the form of BASIC DATA statements, assembler source code, or even an entire BASIC subroutine for incorporating your character set into a program.

DEEP BLUE C COMPILER

by John Palevich

Written in C

More powerful and faster than BASIC, yet free of the tedious hours of debugging common in assembly programming, C is a valuable general purpose language. Pointers, recursive functions, and high-level control structures make complex software systems easy to design, implement, and maintain. Furthermore, C is the de facto systems programming language of the new generation of "workstation computers." DEEP BLUE C is a proper subset of version 7 C, which means that program written for it will run almost without change on computers supporting the full language.

REQUIRES: 48K RAM; A non-line-oriented text editor #AP114 $19.95

CUSTOM BLEND

by Al Casper

Written in machine language

If you do any programming with your Atari computer, CUSTOM BLEND will give you the power to create any combination of text and graphics modes — even Display List Interrupts — automatically! Just sit back in your chair with your joystick, and CUSTOM BLEND will write BASIC subroutines controlling any of the Atari's 14 display modes. Get results that used to take hours of trial & error — in minutes! The Automatic Display List Interrupt feature makes it easy to put two totally different character sets on the screen at once — and double the number of colors you have to work with!

REQUIRES: One Joystick

OPTIONAL: Instedit; Atari BASIC language #AP118 $19.95

DEEP BLUE SECRETS

THE PAPIE DISKS

Climb into the hacker's attic and discover the arcane secrets of Atari professional programmers!

In the early days of Atari, top professional freelance programmers banded together to trade their secrets. Organized by the prolific Jerry White, the group called itself the Professional Atari Programmer's Information Exchange (PAPIE).

The PAPIE roster reads like a Who's Who of Atari programmers. A sampling includes Russ Wetmore, author of "Preppie I & II," Clinton Parker, creator of ACTION!, Jim Nangano, "Flip & Flop" and "Spy vs Spy," and Sheldon Leemon, creator of "Instedit."

Each member contributed their own private programming utilities and favorite programs, which were compiled on disk by Jerry White under the contributor's name and program number (i.e. Wetmore's 3rd program would be WETMORE3). Some of these professionals are now willing to share them with Antic's readers, so we are offering them as a kind of "hacker's delight."

Most PAPIE programs are utilities that help solve advanced programming problems. And there are a good deal of assembly language routines intended to be incorporated into larger programs. In some cases there is documentation, but mostly there is none. Get the whole set and explore how the pros program!
